

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. COURSE OF STUDIES

IN

BROWN UNIVERSITY.

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

No person shall be admitted a member of the Freshman Class, unless he have completed his fourteenth year, nor to advanced standing, without proportional increase of age. He must bring satisfactory evidence of unexceptionable moral character, and be thoroughly acquainted with the Grammar of the Latin and Greek Languages, be able to construe and parse any portion of the following books, namely:—Jacob's Greek Reader, the Historical Books of the New Testament, or three Books of Xenophon's Cyropædia, Cæsar's Commentaries, Virgil, Cicero's Select Orations, and translate English into Latin correctly. He must also be well acquainted with ancient and modern Geography, Arithmetic, English Grammar, and Algebra, as far as Quadratic Equations. To enter upon an advanced standing, he must, in addition, be thoroughly versed in all the preceding studies of the Class into which he proposes to be admitted.

The Grammars used in College, are Goodrich's Greek and Adam's Latin Grammar. Candidates for admission will be subjected to a rigid examination in both.

☐ The regular examinations for entrance are held on the two days next preceding Commencement, and at the close of the summer term.

In addition to the above course of studies, instruction in French, German and Hebrew is also furnished to those who desire it, at the expense of the student.

In conducting the studies of the several classes, the most approved text-books are used. It is not, however, the design of the Instructors to be confined strictly to any text-book, as they wish to teach rather the science, than the views of it given by any particular author. For this purpose, a considerable part of the teaching, in the more advanced classes, is done by Lectures.

COURSES OF LECTURES are delivered on the following subjects:

1. Roman Antiquities and Literature.
2. Grecian Antiquities and Literature.
3. The several branches of Natural Philosophy.
4. Chemistry.
5. Physiology, Vegetable and Animal.
6. Political Economy.
7. Intellectual Philosophy and Evidences of Christianity.
8. Geology.

The following is an outline of the course of instruction and the text-books adopted in the several departments of this University:

1. THE DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS.

The studies of this department commence with the first term of Freshman year and close with the second term of Senior year. They comprise the following text-books and exercises:

Greek.

Xenophon's Anabasis,
Herodotus or Xenophon's Memorabilia,
Euripides,
Sophocles,
Homer's Iliad,
Demosthenes or Æschines,
Exercises in writing Greek.

Latin.

Folsom's Livy,
Tacitus' History,
Horace,
Juvenal, Terence, or
Cicero de Oratore,
Exercises in writing Latin.
